RALLY REPORT – February 2020 - Georgia

By Bobby Moreman

It was a pretty day and 23 Peach State Travelers got together at the Downwind Restaurant. The location of the Restaurant is located in the same section of a building built in the mid 1930' and originally housed the air craft controlling tower for the then, United States Naval Air Station. This is inside the airport and the restaurant featured large windows and a balcony to get really close to the plains taking on and off, this second business airport in Georgia.

The restaurant provided two rows of tables next to the large windows. Often someone in our group would exclaim Ohhhh or Ahhhhh or I want one of those. Lots of Lear Jets, and Citations

Debbie Simons did a great job in decorating the tables with a Valentine theme with lots of decorations and candy for everyone.

There was no business meeting. Your host for the February rally was: Bobby n Brenda Moreman and Alan n Debbie Simons.

Attending was Moreman, Simons, Loudermilk, Gruba, Exposito, Sawyer, Sawyer, Carlele, VanGys, Bowman, Matthews, and Litepovick.

RALLY REPORT – February 2020 - Florida

By Patricia Voyna

We met for lunch on Tuesday February 4th at Fred's Market Restaurant in Lakeland, FL. We had several guests, many from the Mountaineers joined us. Our FMCA President, Jon & Sandra Walker didn't get to the rally till Tuesday afternoon, so they missed the luncheon this year. The food was great and plenty to fill our tummies.

I have included some pictures in our picture file. The Southeast Rally was the best. The entertainment was fabulous. So much to do, it was hard for rally goers to decide which activity to partake. Marvin did make sure he got his 2 Strawberry shortcakes from the Strawberry lady each day. The food trucks were delicious. Kept hearing about the best BBQ Ribs at one of the trucks. By the time we made it there, found out they had run out of ribs the day before, real bummer.

Tom Tripp is with Tricia McAllister Tripp in Canton, Georgia. 3 hrs · 🌐

It is with a sad and broken heart this morning that I must tell you that Tricia passed away during the night. It was unexpected despite her significant surgery on January 22nd. God gave her to me 44 years ago and I have known for awhile he was going to take her back. She is not in pain anymore and is with Jesus, her mom and dad and our daughter Katie. It would have been my desire to have called each of our friends but I cant seem to do it. So, we will be posting plans and updates here on Facebook as we know them.

Did You Know?

Jacksonville Sheriff's Dept.
It was a hot time at an RV tailgating spot in Jacksonville, Florida. The famed Florida vs. Georgia rivalry never takes long to fill up tailgating lots before the game, and Saturday (November 2) was no exception. But the heat that took the news had nothing to do with team rivalry; rather, it appears somebody got careless with a gas can near a generator which took off in huge flames at 2:00 in the morning. Firefighters quickly knocked the flames down.

Dead Cat

Little boy tells his nursery teacher he found a dead cat.

How did you know it was dead? Asked his teacher
Because I pissed in its ear and it did move, says the boy.
You did what!?, shrieks the teacher.

You know, explains the boy, I leant over and went Pssst and it did move!

After All ... It's Fifty Dollars!

Morris and his wife Esther went to the state fair every year, and every year Morris would say, "Esther, I'd like to ride in that helicopter."

Esther always replied, "I know Morris, but that helicopter ride is fifty dollars, and fifty dollars is fifty dollars."

One year Esther and Morris went to the fair and Morris said, "Esther, I'm 85 years old. If I don't ride that helicopter, I might never get another chance."

To this, Esther replied, "Morris that helicopter ride is fifty dollars and fifty dollars is fifty dollars."

The pilot overheard the couple and said, "Folks I'll make you a deal. I'll take the both of you for a ride. If you can stay quiet for the entire ride and not say a word, I won't charge you! But if you say one word, it's fifty dollars."

Morris and Esther agreed and up they went. The pilot did all kinds of fancy maneuvers, but not a word was heard. He did his daredevil tricks over and over again, but still not a word.

When they landed, the pilot turned to Morris and said, "By golly, I did everything I could to get you to yell out, but you didn't. I'm impressed!"

Morris replied, "Well, to tell you the truth, I almost said something when Esther fell out, but you know, fifty dollars is fifty dollars!"

New pickup truck has 300,000 pound towing capacity

(Nov. 6, 2019) — Tesla watchers have been breathlessly hunting for clues about the company's long-anticipated electric "Cybertruck." The anticipation may soon be over.

Today, Tesla CEO Elon Musk announced on Twitter that the long-anticipated pickup truck will be unveiled on November 21 near the SpaceX rocket factory in the port of Los Angeles. "It's gonna be awesome, it's gonna be amazing. This will be heart-stopping. It stops my heart. It's going to look like it came off a movie set." Musk said recently.

Little is known about the truck now, but Musk once described it as a massive 6-seater with an option for anywhere between 400 and 500 miles of range, packing a monstrous 300,000 pound towing capacity (that is not a misprint). For the non-mathematicians in the crowd, that's 150 tons!

By comparison, the 2019 Ram 1500 has a towing capacity of 12,750 pounds. But that's nothing according to Musk when compared to his new pickup.

Musk has made similar statements before. This comment in a blog about the new truck read: "Does anybody think that a Tesla truck will have the ability to take even 3,000 pounds of payload? Because it's not just whether the thing has enough torque to get the load moving — you need enough brakes to stop it. You need enough suspension to manage the ride. You need enough weight to keep the trailer from wagging the tow vehicle."

The Tesla Truck's official unveiling could be scheduled for 2020 at the earliest.

No wonder other countries have trouble figuring out what we are saying!

2 letter word:

UP

This two-letter word in English has more meanings than any other two-letter word, and that word is 'UP.' It is listed in the dictionary as an [adv], [prep], [adj], [n] or [v].

It's easy to understand UP, meaning toward the sky or at the top of the list, but when we awaken in the morning, why do we wake UP?

At a meeting, why does a topic come UP? Why do we speak UP, and why are the officers UP for election and why is it UP to the secretary to write UP a report? We call UP our friends, brighten UP a room, polish UP the silver, warm UP the leftovers and clean UP the kitchen. We lock UP the house and fix UP the old car.

At other times, this little word has real special meaning. People stir UP trouble, line UP for tickets, work UP an appetite, and think UP excuses.

To be dressed is one thing but to be dressed UP is special.

And this UP is confusing: A drain must be opened UP because it is stopped UP.

We open UP a store in the morning but we close it UP at night. We seem to be pretty mixed UP about UP!

To be knowledgeable about the proper uses of UP, look UP the word UP in the dictionary. In a desk-sized dictionary, it takes UP almost 1/4 of the page and can add UP to about thirty definitions.

If you are UP to it, you might try building UP a list of the many ways UP is used. It will take UP a lot of your time, but if you don't give UP, you may wind UP with a hundred or more.

When it threatens to rain, we say it is clouding UP. When the sun comes out, we say it is clearing UP. When it rains, it soaks UP the earth. When it does not rain for a while, things dry UP. One could go on and on, but I'll wrap it UP, for now . . . my time is UP!

Oh . . . one more thing: What is the first thing you do in the morning and the last thing you do at night?

U P!

Did that one crack you UP?

Now I'll shut UP!

A new pastor was visiting in the homes of his parishioners. At one house it seemed obvious that someone was at home, but no answer came to his repeated knocks at the door. Therefore, he took out a business card and wrote 'Revelation 3:20' on the back of it and stuck it in the door.

When the offering was processed at the next worship service, he found that his card had been returned. Added to it was this cryptic message, 'Genesis 3:10' Reaching for his Bible to check out the citation, he broke up in gales of laughter. Revelation 3:20 begins 'Behold, I stand at the door and knock.' Genesis 3:10 reads, 'I heard your voice in the garden and I was afraid for I was naked.'

Blonde

Last year, I replaced, like, all the windows in my house with those expensive, double-pane, energy-efficient kind. Today, I, like, got a call from the contractor who installed them. He complained that the work had been completed a year ago. and I still hadn't, like, paid for them. OMG! Hellloooo,..... Just because I'm blonde doesn't mean that I'm, like, automatically stupid. So, I told him just what his fast-talking sales guy told me last year -- that these windows would, like, pay for themselves in a year. Helllooooo? It's been a year, so they're, like, paid for, I told him. There was only silence at the other end of the line, so I finally hung up. He never called back. I bet he felt like an idiot.

No RV sites at this campground — just “glampers” for $149 to $514 a night

By Chuck Woodbury

Not a week passes without a few new campgrounds being built or proposed across America. But increasingly many of those campgrounds do not accept RVs. They’re “glampgrounds.” The latest is a Montana-based luxury campsite operator that is making its first venture east of the Mississippi River with a proposal to build its ninth “glamping” site close to Acadia National Park in Maine.

Under Canvas of Bozeman, Montana, has submitted a proposal to build a seasonal, luxury camping resort on a 101-acre former hay farm on Route 172 that the company agreed to buy if the project is approved. The move to build the glamping site — with tents that have king-size beds, luxe linens, bathrooms and wood-burning stoves — is part of a national expansion for the company to complement existing resorts near National Park Service sites including the Grand Canyon and Mount Rushmore. The tents are far more luxurious than what you’d expect in a normal campground.

Want to stay? It’ll cost you between $149 and $514 a night. The company plans to open with 75 tent sites and add more later, said Rachel Zembraski, a company spokeswoman.

HIS NEIGHBORS WERE ANNOYED THAT HE WAS COOKING STEAK. WHAT HE SAYS NEXT IS GOLD.

Each Friday night after work, Bubba would fire up his outdoor grill and cook venison steak. But all of Bubba's neighbors were Catholic, and since it was Lent, they were forbidden from eating red meat on Friday.

The delicious aroma from the grilled venison steaks was causing such a problem for the Catholic faithful that they finally talked to their priest.

The priest came to visit Bubba and suggested that he become a Catholic.

After several classes and much study, Bubba attended Mass. The priest sprinkled holy water over him and said, "You were born a Baptist and raised as a Baptist, but now you are Catholic."

Bubba's neighbors were greatly relieved, until Friday night arrived and the wonderful aroma of grilled venison filled the neighborhood. The priest was called immediately by the neighbors.

As the priest rushed into Bubba's yard, clutching a rosary and prepared to scold him, he stopped and watched in amazement.

There stood Bubba, clutching a small bottle of holy water, which he carefully sprinkled over the grilling meat while chanting, "You wuz born a deer, you wuz raised a deer, but now you are a catfish."

Trivia

Many years ago in Scotland, a new game was invented. It was ruled “Gentlemen Only, Ladies Forbidden,” and thus the word GOLF entered into the English language.

Do you know your Cabela’s history?

By Russ and Tiña De Maris

Many RVers have taken advantage of the “RV welcome mat” extended by Cabela’s sporting goods stores. Many of the retailer’s parking lots have dump stations, some of them even for free use. And taking a hike through Cabela’s is like visiting a giant “man cave.” If you’re into the outdoors, you need to go into Cabela’s — it’s like being outside, while inside.

M.O. Stevens on wikimedia commons.

Do you know the history of how Cabela’s came to be? It all started with co-founder Dick Cabela. “Dick, along with his wife, Mary, and brother, Jim, founded Cabela’s somewhat inadvertently in 1961 when he purchased $45 worth of hand-tied fishing flies while in Chicago on a furniture and housewares buying trip with his father for the family’s Chappell, Nebraska furniture store,” says a news release.

Apparently Dick found furniture easier to sell than fishing gear, because when those fishing flies didn’t “fly off the shelf,” Cabela tried a different approach. He put an ad in a Casper, Wyoming, newspaper selling his gear by mail — and drew exactly one sale. Not ready to throw in the sinker, a new advertisement in Sports Afield magazine read, “FREE introductory offer!!! 5 popular Grade A hand-tied flies. Send 25c for postage and handling.” That advert worked like a magnet and orders poured in. Cabela quickly saw the light and ordered more gear. He and his wife put out a “catalog” consisting of three mimeographed pages, which he added to every order he sent out.

So much for tables, chairs and sofas. Dick’s original $45 worth of fishing tackle was eventually transformed into a $3.6 billion company with a huge, colorful, glossy paper catalog and an Internet presence known around the world.

On Dick Cabela’s death in 2014, a company announcement read, “Outdoorsmen and women have lost a true friend, a man who improved their lot by putting them first, by working to provide what they wanted and needed for their hunting and fishing adventures. He pushed for research and development in every outdoor field. Dick always looked out for the customer and if he couldn’t find a vendor to provide what he wanted, he pushed Cabela’s to design and make it. Because of that passion, the Cabela’s brand and its products are iconic throughout the world.”

Next time you pull into a Cabela’s for an overnight stop, be glad Dick Cabela stayed on top of his dream. After all, old fishermen never die, they just get reel tired.

Bumper sticker of the week

AN OLD WOMAN WALKED UP AND TIED HER OLD MULE TO THE HITCHING POST.

AS SHE STOOD THERE, BRUSHING SOME OF THE DUST FROM HER FACE AND CLOTHES, A YOUNG GUNSLINGER STEPPED OUT OF THE SALOON WITH A GUN IN ONE HAND AND A BOTTLE OF WHISKEY IN THE OTHER. THE YOUNG GUNSLINGER LOOKED AT THE OLD WOMAN AND LAUGHED, "HEY OLD WOMAN, HAVE YOU EVER DANCED?"

THE OLD WOMAN LOOKED UP AT THE GUNSLINGER AND SAID, "NO,... I NEVER DID DANCE... NEVER REALLY WANTED TO."

A CROWD HAD GATHERED AS THE GUNSLINGER GRINNED AND SAID "WELL, YOU OLD BAG, YOU'RE GONNA DANCE NOW," AND STARTED SHOOTING AT THE OLD WOMAN'S FEET.

THE OLD WOMAN PROSPECTOR -- NOT WANTING TO GET HER TOE BLOWN OFF --STARTED HOPPING AROUND. EVERYBODY WAS LAUGHING. WHEN HIS LAST BULLET HAD BEEN FIRED, THE YOUNG GUNSLINGER, STILL LAUGHING, HOLSTERED HIS GUN AND TURNED AROUND TO GO BACK INTO THE SALOON.

THE OLD WOMAN TURNED TO HER PACK MULE, PULLED OUT A DOUBLE-BARRELED SHOTGUN, AND COCKED BOTH HAMMERS.

THE LOUD CLICKS CARRIED CLEARLY THROUGH THE DESERT AIR, AND THE CROWD STOPPED LAUGHING IMMEDIATELY.

THE YOUNG GUNSLINGER HEARD THE SOUNDS, TOO, AND HE TURNED AROUND VERY SLOWLY. THE SILENCE WAS ALMOST DEAFENING. THE CROWD WATCHED AS THE YOUNG GUNMAN STARED AT THE OLD WOMAN AND THE LARGE GAPING HOLES OF THOSE TWIN BARRELS.

THE BARRELS OF THE SHOTGUN NEVER WAVED IN THE OLD WOMAN'S HANDS, AS SHE QUIETLY SAID, "SON, HAVE YOU EVER KISSED A MULE'S ASS?"

THE GUNSLINGER SWALLOWED HARD AND SAID, "NO M'AM... BUT I'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO.

THERE ARE FIVE LESSONS HERE FOR ALL OF US:

- 1 - Never be arrogant.
- 2 - Don't waste ammunition.
- 3 - Whiskey makes you think you're smarter than you are.
- 4 - Always make sure you know who has the power.
- 5 - Don't mess with old people; they didn't get old by being stupid.

Please

Give my sight to the man who has never seen a sunrise, a baby's face, or love in the eyes of a woman.

Give my heart to a person whose own heart has caused nothing but endless days of pain.

Give my blood to the teenager who was pulled from the wreckage of his car, so that he might live to see his grandchildren play.

Give my kidneys to one who depends on a machine to exist from week to week.

Take my bones, every muscle, every fiber and nerve in my body and find a way to make a crippled child walk.

If you must bury something, let it be my faults, my weaknesses, and all prejudice against my fellow man.

If, by chance, you wish to remember me, do it with a kind deed or word to someone who needs you. If you do all I have asked, I will live forever. -- Robert N. Test

Did you know that on the Canary Islands there is not one single Canary same thing on the Virgin isles there's not one Canary there either.
